With his letter no 347 of 4-1-04, the President submitted for sanction, a revised estimate for 720, in lieu of the original estimate for Rs 450 sanction bestowed for sinking a well at Belludi in the Harihar Sub Taluk; and proposed that a portion of the excess expenditure viz 270 may be met from the general saving of the current year's D. & Budget

2. Enclosure, ~~error~~ for the
the President was informed that, unless the source from which the excess expenditure is to be met, was definitely pointed out, the appropriation

~~cannot~~ be sanctioned from general savings.

He now states that the excess expenditure, of $20 270 may ~~be~~ met partly from the sum of $20 251, remaining out of the grant of $20 2100 under "cc. II repairs" in the current year's B. H. Budget, and partly from general savings as a special case since the amount to be met therefrom ($20 270) is very small.

As the proposal to meet any portion of the cost from general savings cannot be approved, ~~must~~ may the estimate be
